

GETTING RIGHT WITH REAGAN:

The Struggle to Define True Conservatism, 1980-2016

Today's conservatives love Ronald Reagan. At least, they love his legacy. Thirty years ago, though, conservatives weren't always on board with the man, the president, and his policies.

Is today's Republican Party really the "party of Reagan"?

In his new book, Marcus Witcher, Ph.D. answers that question and more. Getting Right with Reagan examines the tenuous relationship conservatives have had with the 40th President.

DR. MARCUS WITCHER

Scholar-in-Residence in the History Department, and the Arkansas Center for Research in Economics
(ACRE) at the University of Central Arkansas
<https://www.marcuswitcher.com/>

WEDNESDAY | 2019

MISSOURI ATHLETIC CLUB-

West Clubhouse
1777 Des Peres Road
Town & Country, MO 63131
www.mac-stl.org

EVENT IS FREE

No Registration Required
www.Hammond.Institute

Doors Open - 7pm
Hors d'oeuvres and Cash Bar
Program Begins - 7:20pm
Program Ends - 8pm
Cocktail Hour Continues until 9pm

The John W. Hammond
INSTITUTE FOR FREE ENTERPRISE
AT LINDENWOOD

LINDENWOOD
REAL EXPERIENCE. REAL SUCCESS.

For questions or more information, please visit: www.Hammond.Institute or call 636-627-2915.