WHO: The Hammond Institute for Free Enterprise at Lindenwood University will host its Spring 2020 event of the H. F. Langenberg Memorial Speaker Series. Members of the local community, faculty, staff, and students will have an opportunity to participate in this long-standing St. Louis tradition, formerly known as The Discussion Club.

The evening event will feature Jason Clemens, executive vice president of The Fraser Institute, who will present on the topic: -Transitory vs. Permanent Poverty, and Public Policy.- Dr. Tawni Hunt Ferrarini, associate director of the Hammond Institute and director of the Economic Education Center at Lindenwood University, will serve as event moderator.

WHAT: Permanent Poverty -- This discussion topic, sponsored and moderated by the Hammond Institute for Free Enterprise, is free and open to the general public. Featuring: Jason Clemens, who will address Transitory vs. Permanent Poverty, and Public Policy. According to Clemens, so much of the discourse over public policy is rooted, in one way or another, to poverty and our legitimate concerns about how best to combat it. And yet, very little of that discourse includes differentiating between transitory or temporary poverty, and permanent poverty, and perhaps more importantly, how they affect potential public policy. The Hammond Institute is a research center at Lindenwood. Its mission is to foster free enterprise and civil and religious liberty through the examination of market-oriented approaches to economic and social issues. This mission is based on the view that limited government, such as that laid out in the Constitutional foundation of the U.S., is a necessary component of a just and prosperous society.
